

Performance & Efficiency!

KNI MASKINSTATION (KNI) is a farming contractor, carries out different types of agricultural works. The company, owned by Mr. Jens Hansen, is located in Orum Djurs, north east Denmark. For its activities KNI operates more than 70 different machines and farming tools, from heavy duty tractors and combines to small agricultural machines.

Alliance tires are being used by KNI since 2008 and are the replacement tires of choice for the company's main machines. Besides of his overall satisfaction from the Alliance tires' performance, Mr. Hansen noted the highly competitive value and price/quality ratio provided by the Alliance tires. As CAPEX and efficiency are being closely monitored, the Alliance tires proved to be the natural tire of choice to equip the company's machines with.
